GSRP ADDS TWO ATTORNEYS

GSRP is very proud to welcome two new attorneys to the firm in the early part of 2014. Thomas M. Bounty joined the firm as a Partner and Steven D. Baker as Counsel.

Tom, who began his legal career in private practice, comes to GSRP as a 28-year veteran of the life insurance industry, having held senior executive positions with major insurance companies, most recently with Zurich American Life Insurance Company. He unquestionably enjoys a stellar reputation as one of the private placement life insurance market's most respected legal, tax, and product experts. In his new role with GSRP, Tom will counsel high net worth individuals and family offices in the design and implementation of domestic and international private placement life insurance and annuity structures with a focus on minimizing tax burdens while fulfilling charitable and legacy planning goals. He will also advise investment management companies seeking to participate in the private placement life insurance realm through the establishment of insurance dedicated funds.

Steven brings 15 years of estate planning, probate and tax expertise to GSRP. He is both an attorney and CPA, and is Board Certified in Estate Planning and Probate. Steven has extensive prior experience in both large and small firm environments providing quality, personalized estate planning, probate, and trust services to individuals and families, as well as counseling fiduciaries on a wide variety of trust and estate administration matters. He will primarily assist GSRP's clients with domestic estate planning and tax matters, but will also support GSRP's large family relationships in relation to their closely held business, complex trust administration, charitable foundation, and tax compliance needs.

We are thrilled about the addition of Tom and Steven to GSRP's team of lawyers, non-lawyer private client professionals, and amazing administrative staff. Some of us have practiced together for as many as 20+ years, and we are confident that Tom and Steven will be long term players, too, enabling us to represent our clients at an even higher level.
